Character Education Through Sports

I urge coaches, young athletes, and parents to make good use of this beautiful selection of prayers. Before practice or a game, take time to thank God for the blessings of life, energy, health and friendship. God is always with you and always loves you. As you become more aware of God's love for you, remember that God wants us to love others as we are loved.

Turn the simple words, "Play Like a Champion Today" into your daily prayer. Whatever you do, whether it is playing a sport, studying for an exam, coaching young people, visiting a sick friend in the hospital, do it with great love. Thank God for each moment you have on this earth and make the most of every opportunity. Even when you are asked to do something that you find very difficult, do it with all the joy you can summon.

In sports and in life, be a competitor and a peacemaker. Play as hard as you can and always remember to respect your competitors and thank them for making you a better competitor. Play fairly on the court and work for justice in our society and world. One of my favorite sayings is, "Opus justitiae pax." (Peace is the work of justice.)

At times, we all fail: we strike out, we miss shots, we make errors, we hurt others, we are insensitive. God does not want us to dwell on our past wrongs. God forgives our past, so that we can be all God wants us to be "Today." Trust that God gives you all the strength you will need to be a champion every day.

Play Like a Champion Today.
God Bless You.

Ever devotedly in Notre Dame,

PRAYERS FOR ATHLETES

An Athlete's Prayer

Dear God,

Today is game day and I place myself in your loving hands. Help me to be a good sport. I pray that I do not seek individual glory or accolades, but rather that I play for your glory and for the good of my team. I pray that all who play this game today are protected from physical harm.

And, my Lord, help me to accept the bad breaks as part of the game. I pray that I play to the best of my ability and to give honor to you by accepting my position and my place in the lineup.

Loving God, I pray for those who watch from the stands that they, too, give glory to you by accepting, without prejudice, the rules and decisions of the game today. May their hearts be filled with joy and gladness that you have given them the ultimate gifts they watch this day: the players.

Dear God, I pray for the coaches and referees that they too experience your loving guidance in the decisions they make today. For those who work behind the scenes to make this day enjoyable and for the founders and supporters of (Insert School/ League name).

Finally, I pray to you, Loving God, that you enjoy this game today and bestow on each of us wisdom and acceptance—no matter the outcome of the final score. With you in our hearts, we are all winners. Amen.

For Athletes

Thanks God, for giving me life; and talents for my participation in sports.
Help me to play well, to use my powers to the full, to see them as gifts from you.

Be with me when I need to play hurt, when I have to deal with the pain of injury, disappointment, loss.

Keep me aware of the brotherhood/sisterhood I have with all athletes, even when they are opponents; free me from the temptation to fake, to foul, to cheat.

I need to see that dedication to the cause will mean suffering, but let me know that it is the kind of suffering that leads to new life and greater maturity.

Help me play with heart, and never lose heart.

Most of all, help me never to quit in my efforts to be open to you. For I believe your full coming into my life is the way to real life, in all I do; I believe it is the way of my becoming the truly human person you destined me to be.

Amen.

Athlete's Prayer

Words of Champions

Help me to play the game, dear Lord, with all my might and main;
Grant me the courage born of right, a heart to stand the strain...

Send me a sense of humor, Lord, to laugh when victory's mine;
To laugh, if I should meet defeat, without a fret or whine...

Give me the grace to follow rules, to 'fess up when I'm wrong,
When silence or some other thing wins plaudits from the throng...

When foes are tough and fighting fierce and I am getting weak,
Dear God, don't ever let me show a broad, bright, yellow streak.

And teach me, Lord, life's game to play just one day at a time.
With Thee as coach and trainer, Lord, real victory must be mine.

An Athlete's Prayer

I thank you O God
for giving me a body
which is fit and strong,
and for making me able to use it well.
In my training,
help me never to shrink the discipline which I know that I need and that I ought to accept.
In my leisure and in my pleasure,
help me never to allow myself any indulgence which would make me less fit than I ought to be.
When I compete with others,
help me, win or lose, to play fair.
When I win,
keep me from boasting;
When I lose,
keep me from making excuses.
Keep me from being conceited when I succeed,
and from being sulky when I fail.
And help me always with good will congratulate a better man who beat me.
Help me so to live
that I will always have a healthy body, and a healthy mind.
This I ask for Your love's sake.
Amen.

An Athlete's Prayer

"For I asked God for strength that I might achieve,
Instead I was made weak that I might learn to humbly obey.

I asked for help that I might do greater things,
Instead I was given infirmity that I might do better things.

I asked for riches that I might be happy,
I was given poverty that I might be wise.

I asked for power that I might have the praises of men,
I was given weakness that I might feel the need of God.

I asked for things that I might enjoy life,
I was given life that I might enjoy all things.

I got nothing I asked for, but everything I hoped for.
Almost despite myself, my unspoken prayers were answered.

Because I am among all athletes who have been most richly blessed: You see, I lost by inches, but I won by a mile."

Player Prayer

God, let me play well but fairly.
Let competition make me strong but never hostile.
Forbid me to rejoice in the adversity of others.
See me not when I am cheered, but when I bend to help my opponent up.
If I know victory, allow me to be happy;
if I am denied, keep me from envy.
Remind me that sports are just games.
Help me to learn something that matters once the game is over.
And if through athletics I set an example, let it be a good one.

Don't Quit

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will,
when the road you're trudging seems all uphill,
when the funds are low and the debts are high,
and you want to smile but you have to sigh, when care is pressing you down a bit - rest if you must,
but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twists and turns.

As everyone of us sometimes learns.

And many a fellow turns about when he might have won had he stuck it out.

Don't give up though the pace seems slow - you may succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than it seems to a faint and faltering man;

often the struggler has given up when he might have captured the victor's cup;

and he learned too late when the night came down,

how close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out - the silver tint of the clouds of doubt, and when you never can tell how close you are,

it may be near when it seems afar;

so stick to the fight when you're hardest hit - it's when things seem worst,

you must not quit.

PRAYERS FOR COACHES

Coach's Prayer

Heavenly Father guide me as I try to coach my team to build each player's character and boost their self-esteem. May I keep an even temper and remember it's a game; let me not have favorite players, but treat them all the same. Grant me patient wisdom as I praise them or correct ...Remembering that I must work to earn each one's respect. Lord, whether we may win or lose, may all who are watching see the kind of coach at every game that you would have me be. Amen.

Coach Prayer for Young Athletes

Heavenly Father, be with my young athletes as they test their physical skills.

Let them play well, but fairly.

Let competition make them strong, but never hostile.

Grant them the strength to best their opponent, and lead them to always help the opponent up.

Grant them moments to rejoice, but not in the adversity of others.

Help them stay safe from injury, both physical and emotional.

Help them to learn something that matters once the game is over.

Help them remember that sports are just games.

If they know victory, allow them to be happy.

If they are denied, keep them from envy.

If through athletics, they set an example, let it be a good one.

In the name of Your Son, Jesus.

Amen.

Prayer to Play Fair in the Game of Life

Dear Lord,

In the struggle that goes on through life
We ask for a field that is fair,
A chance that is equal with all the strife,
The courage to strive and to dare;
And if we should win, let it be by the code,
With our faith and our honor held high;
And if we should lose, let us stand by the road
And cheer as the winners go by.

Team Prayer

God has created this day for ...
Gain not loss,
Success not failure,
Positive action not negative thought.

Lord, inspire us with the desire for greatness,
To wisely use the gifts and talents you
Have so generously given us.
They are tools to be used,
Not treasures to be stored.

Create in these athletes:
The RIGHT ATTITUDE to excel
In the classroom and in life. The attitude that says
"I can reach deeper inside myself."

The FIRM BELIEF in God, themselves, their families,
And their teammates,
To have great expectations for the future.

The ENDURING COMMITMENT to persevere,
To never quit no matter what the odds.

Amen.

Prayer to St. Sebastian, Patron Saint of Athletes

Dear Commander at the Roman Emperor's court,
You chose to be also a soldier of Christ and dared to spread faith in the King of Kings, for which you were condemned to die. Your body, however, proved athletically strong and the executing arrows extremely weak. So another means to kill you was chosen and you gave your life to the Lord. May athletes be always as strong in their faith as their Patron Saint so clearly has been.
Amen.

PRAYERS FOR PARENTS

A Parent's Prayer

Loving God,
You are the giver of all we possess,
the source of all our blessings.
We thank and praise you.

Thank you for the gift of our children.
Help us to set boundaries for them,
and yet encourage them to explore their athletic abilities.
Give us the strength and courage to treat each day and each game as a fresh start.

May this sport help our children come to know you, the one true God, and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.
May your Holy Spirit help them to grow in faith, hope, and love,
so they may know peace, truth, and goodness.

May their ears hear your voice.
May their eyes see your presence in all things.
May their lips proclaim your word.
May their hearts be your dwelling place.
May their hands do works of charity.

May the physical trials of the game help them to learn how to walk in the way of Jesus Christ,
Your Son and our Lord. Amen

BIBLICAL SCRIPTURES RELATING TO SPORT

1 Corinthians 9: 24-27 “Do you know that the runners in the stadium all run in the race, but only one wins the prize? Run so as to win. Every athlete exercises discipline in every way. They do it to win a perishable crown, but we an imperishable one. Thus, I do not run aimlessly; I do not fight as if I were shadowboxing. No, I drive my body and train, for fear that, after having preached to others, I myself should be disqualified.”

Hebrews 12:1 “Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us while keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus.”

1 Timothy 1: 18-19 “I entrust this charge to you, Timothy, my child, in accordance with the prophetic words once spoken about you. Through them may you fight a good fight by having faith and a good conscience. Some, by rejecting conscience, have made a shipwreck of their faith.”

1 Timothy 4:7-10 “Avoid profane and silly myths. Train yourself for devotion, for while physical training is of limited value, devotion is valuable in every respect, since it holds a promise of life both for the present and for the future. This saying is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. For this we toil and struggle because we have set our hope on the living God, which is savior of all, especially those who believe.”

1 Timothy 6:11-12 “But you, child of God, avoid all this. Instead pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience and gentleness. Compete well for the faith. Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses.”

2 Timothy 2:5 "Similarly, an athlete cannot receive the winner's crown except by competing according to the rules."

2 Timothy 4:7-8 "I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the last judge, will award to me on the last day, and not only to me but to all who have longed for his appearance."
